FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Langhorne Players Elects Board of Directors for 2009

Newtown, PA, April 3, 2009 – Langhorne Players, an all-volunteer theater company located in the Spring Garden Mill in Tyler State Park, announced its 2009 Board of Directors today. “I’m excited to lead this creative, dedicated group and look forward to a strong, well-balanced season of productions in our tradition of thought-provoking theater,” President Lauren Perry of Hatboro, PA said. “One of my goals this year is to expand our theater community and connect with new members and friends to join us on stage, behind the scenes and in the audience to celebrate live theater together.”

Vice-President, Charles Gorman of Holland, PA; Treasurer, Robert A. Norman of New Hope, PA; Secretary, Carole Mancini of Forest Grove, PA; and Board Members At Large, Bernard DiCasimirro of Morrisville, PA; Barbara Katz of Yardley, PA; Marty Sherman of Blue Bell, PA and Aaron Wexler of Philadelphia, PA.

The first production of the 2009 season, The Underpants by Carl Sternheim with an adaptation by Steve Martin, opens Friday, April 17. Tickets for Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday performances are $12; Friday and Saturday performances are $14.

Founded in 1947, Langhorne Players is a non-profit, volunteer community theater company that produces unusual, thought-provoking works meant to engender post-theater conversation. Open auditions are held for each show and the company enthusiastically welcomes new volunteers and talent. Productions take place in a 73-seat theater in the 200-year-old Spring Garden Mill located in Tyler State Park, Newtown, PA. To request a season brochure, purchase tickets, or more information, please call (215) 860-0818 or visit www.langhorneplayers.org.
